Location

Portobello is an historic seaside town, lying on the outskirts of Edinburgh and only a 15 minute journey into the city centre, making it a popular choice for city professionals and family's. The main attraction is it's beautiful sweeping crescent beach and promenade, a 'playground' for all and a popular destination on a sunny weekend. The High Street offers a wealth of amenities, including big high street names and small independent traders, along with a thriving cafe/bar culture. More extensive shopping can be found at nearby Fort Kinnaird which also has cinema and gym. As well as the beach, for leisure activities, there are the historic Turkish Baths (now Portobello Swim Centre) with swimming pool and gym, a five aside football facility and a couple of local golf courses. The area is serviced by a regular bus routes and there direct access to the A1 and the City Bypass.
